NEW YORK, August 23.—Carpentier will field Levinsky en Dercentage, a language that Carpentier speaks fluently. Babe Ruth has struck out more times against the Athletics than any other team. When in Philadelphia Babe does as the Philadelphians do.

The International rage. Berlin wrote I and it looks like Baltimore will win it. Some umpires call 'em as they see 'em and some umpires call 'em before they see 'em. Nobody can stretch one bag into three at the Polo Grounds like the guy that owns the peanut privilege. World series umpires should strike for $2,000 this year on account of the high cost of whiskbrooms. Statistic expert that claim baneball is the deadlest sport must be referring to the umpire. The National Commission will collect it's 10 for cent luxury tax on the world series this year as usual. Looks like Rabe Ruth's only perform ance in the world's series will be slamming adjectives over the telegraph wires.

If the White Sox and Cincinnati con the pennants a lot of last year's alibis can be used for this year's done.
